A buildog got into a stall in the tables of C. E. Page, Sound Beach, the other day, and attacked a horse. The horse fought back but the muscles of its legs were badly town before employes of Mr. Page drove the dog out of the barn.

Diquor Dealers Fined. Several cases of illegal liquor selling were tried in the New Canaan Borough court, Monday, before Justice Nichols of Ridgefield. All of those arrested except Patsy Petrone pleaded guilty. John Klein was fined $25 and costs, amounting to $53. Mary Costellains was also fined $25. $25 and costs, amounting to $53. Mary Costellaine was also fined $25 and costs, amounting to $52.43. Emile Annunciato pleaded guilty to having a back room connecting his living apartments with his bar room. His fine and costs summed up $45. Franco Francisco, arrested for illegal selling on Sunday, paid $55. Patsy Petrone, who keeps an Italian boarding house, plead not guilty.

Litchfield County News.

Mye Year Old Horse Thief. Willie Michiolis, the 5-year-old horse thlef of Torrington, who has a record of running off with six horses within two weeks, has been sentenced to the Reform School. Judge Holcomb, who was loth to commit so young a child to the State school, suspended execu-tion of the sentence, putting him un-der the care of Probation Officer Wil-

For Fishing With Net. Charles Dukety of Falls Village, who was arrested charged with using a gill net in catching trout, pleaded gullty, whereupon he was fined $10 and costs. Compelled to Pay.

State Humane Agent Thrall of Hart-ford came to Torrington last week to effect a settlement with Mrs. Huldah Farchau, who was convicted of the abandonment of a horse and cow. She was required to pay $11 for the keep-ing of the animals and $3 for carting and burying the carcass of the horse, which was shot by Humane Agent Kills Porcupine at Riverton. The body of a porcupine weighing nine pounds was brought to Winsted Monday by Frank Anstett of Riverton, who shot it in a tree on his farm. One of Mr. Anstett's dogs treed the salmal and when it fell picked it up. Mr. Anstett extracted forty quills from the dog's mouth later.

Mad Autoist Chases Canaanite. Recently at Canaan, Officer Rhoades was called up on the telephone by Frank Snyder, who informed him that a man, apparently intoxicated, or mentally deranged, had been running an sutomobile over his front yard, had smashed into the piazza, tearing off a step and was just that moment departing. Officer Rhoades was unable to catch the man. Mr. Snyder endeavored to get the number of the auto, but every time he would approach the machine, the driver would chase him and he had to step lively to avoid being hit. Once Mr. Snyder just gained the piazza, when the car crashed into the steps. Finally, after tearing a rambler arbor, scraping the bark from a maple tree and otherwise cutting pranks, the autoist ran his ecently at Canaan, Officer Rhoades cutting pranks, the autoist ran his machine across the road and smashed into the fence of Fred Gillette's place.

WANT AUS, CENT A WORD,

CIRCUSES.

The Old and the New and the Greatest Drawing Card.

Before the one ring days and going back a few centuries the circus was represented in the person of a mountebank, a thin visaged, clean shaven man who hitched his trapeze to the sturdy limb of a village oak and did feats to the ill concealed amazement of a people who respected God somewhat, but the devil and his black magic a great deal more.

A long and high jump this-from mountebank to modern hippodrome from a man who lived under his hat to a tented city which houses as many as 25,000 people in one day and regu larly furnishes food, shelter and transportation for 1,200 more, to say nothing of a hospital, a postoffice and a commissary where one can purchase almost anything from a postage stamp to a suit of overalls.

The big show today is as highly spe cialized and deviously organized as is our greatest business institution. Its maintenance costs a thousand dollars an hour. Yes, it's a long jump from the mountebank; but, after all, things haven't changed so much in some ways.

A man who was running a trick pony and dog show last year added a "thriller" to his program in the way of a dangerous flying trapeze act. To the delight of his pockets, but the intense disgust of his trainer's soul, the door receipts almost doubled. He had two men at the door one night who asked the outgoing crowds which part of the show they liked best-the trick animals or the acrobats. They answered as one, "The acrobats!"

Danger-danger to other human lives and limbs-that's the drawing card, after all, excepting only the children who are too young to be gory minded and who find most delight in the clowns. We grownups like the "thrillers"-the more deadly the better. -William Allen Johnston in Harper's Weekly.

WHAT HE WAS TELLING HIM.

An Incident That Ended the Conversation at the Barber's. "You are very bald, sir," said the barber to little Binks as the latter took up his position in the chair. "What's that you say?" asked Binks pleasantly. "I say you are very bald, sir," repeated the barber.

"Who is?" asked Binks. "You, sir," said the barber.

"What paper did you see that in?" demanded Binks. "What's that, sir?" asked the bar-

"What newspaper?" repeated Binks, "I read all the papers, but I didn't see any reference to this. Was it in one of the early editions of the evening papers?

"Was what, sir?" queried the puzzled barber.

"This thing you were just telling me," said Binks. "Why, I don't remember telling you"- began the barber. "About my being bald, you know," said Binks. "You said I was very hald didn't you?" "Yes." said the barber, "but I didn't mention the newspapers, sir. Why should it be in the newspapers, sir? "Why, because it's news, isn't it?" said Binks.

The Advantage.

Phyllis-I suppose Kenneth's marrying you depends on what your father finds out about him. Mildred-Yes, partially, and partially what he finds out about papa. Fortunately, papa has the advantage of experience.-Vogue.
